

Professional Code of Practice – Manufacturers

In achieving membership of the Association, all members have to meet the required standards. The members are bound by this Professional Code of Practice which is intended to maintain a high and improving stand of service to the industry.

1. Criteria for Membership.

In order to be admitted to the Federation Of European Pay Industries all members must meet the required standards.

2. Financial Stability.

All members within FEPI are required to comply with the Associations criteria for financial stability.

3. FEPI Membership.

Members of FEPI are encouraged to promote their membership of FEPI websites and promotional material.

4. Disciplinary procedure.

Member companies who breach aspects of the professional code of conduct will be referred to the Executive committee.

Member Companies readily endorse and affirm their responsibility to their clients under current legislation.

Member Companies who breach aspects of the Code of Practice will be referred to the Association. Breaches of the Code of Practice will result in disciplinary action being taken. A Member Company committing a serious breach will be liable to expulsion from the association.

---

We hereby confirm that we have read & understood the above Code of Practice and agree to abide by it.

Printed Name ..... Company .....

Signature ..... Director Date .....